

other thing is is that the criminal code, which was scheduled for Monday, will be delayed anyway one week because there's an attempt to try to coordinate the many amendments that will be coming on the bill. Not that this is entirely going to be able to be accomplished, but at least an attempt will be made to coordinate all of these amendments before we actually start debating it on a daily one hour schedule. The following Monday then, which will be February 28, so those are the two changes and those are the two announcements.

PRESIDENT: Senator Carsten, do you wish to address some remarks to the Speaker?

SENATOR CARSTEN: Yes, Mr. President, I'd like to ask the Speaker a question if I may. Senator Luedtke, did you also discuss the possibility of after next Monday of coming in at 10:00 on Monday morning to give us a little more time to catch up on our over the weekend workload.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: Yes, I think most of the chairmen were particular during the committee periods, at least we will do that much, yes.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Thank you sir.

PRESIDENT: Do you have a motion Senator Luedtke?

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: Yes, I then move that we adjourn until Friday morning at 9:00 a.m.

PRESIDENT: You've heard the motion. All those in favor say aye, contrary say nay. The motion carries. We are adjourned until 9:00 tomorrow morning.
